

Julianne S

ジュリアン・S

Nationality : Australia

Language : English

Julianne Spicer

Julianne is an Australian singer/pianist/songwriter, narrator and painter originally from Sydney.

Discography: Timeless, a self-produced album of original songs fusing together elements of world, jazz and pop through Long Tale Recordings and Real World Publishing.

Three albums (Velvet, Real 4 Life, and Lifetime) as vocalist/lyricist with Tokyo based electronic recording unit Ambrozia. Ambrozia have also released numerous songs on various compilation albums.

Tales of the Heart, a solo piano album of original compositions inspired by the beauty of the cycles of nature.

Live Performances: Julianne has performed her original music at concerts and festivals worldwide, including WOMAD 2009 in the UK, Japan Music Week Nov 2009, and various performances in Australia (including Manly Jazz Festival), Japan (including Celebrate Australia tour). and Russia's Far East (Unity and Diversity tour).

Japanese artists worked with include: Mayo Okamoto (Crystal Scenery tour, chorus director/backing vocals), Yukihide Takekawa (lyricist), I George (backing vocals) and Dancin' Station's (hip-hop dance show) Shikoku tour as guest vocalist.

Studio recordings: session vocalist for Tokyo artists and TV CMs for companies including Sony, Nissan, Subaru, Shiseido, Hagen Daas, Honda, Mitsubishi Cars, IBM, Suntory, Asahi, Nivea, Kose and Nao cosmetics.

She's also recorded vocals and appeared on NHK's Eigo d'Asabo as a regular member in their weekly choir spot throughout 2018, and still records occasional songs for the show.

Other studio recordings include vocals on various compilation CDs, for companies such as Sony, Avex and Pony Canyon; backing or lead vocals for Kudo Shizuka and Yoshinori Sunahara, television end theme song for Mamachari Keiji Gekkichu Kyoku (TBS), film soundtracks; game software including Devil May Cry (CAPCOM), children's educational songs for companies such as Yamaha.

Narration/voiceover recordings include: various TV CMs including Olympus and IBM PC CI sound logos, voiceovers for NHK World, various corporate videos, children's educational recordings, including NHK's Narnia English learning, and TOEIC.

-2-

Hotels and Other Events: Performances as vocalist, pianist and piano/vocal performing solo and in various sized ensembles doing pop, jazz, a'capella, standard hotel repertoire, early and classical music at major hotels, clubs, resorts and restaurants for weddings, corporate events, shows, tours, theatre, outdoor events, summer festivals both in Tokyo and around Japan. Tokyo hotels worked at include Grand Hyatt, Ritz Carlton, Park Hyatt, Four Seasons, Hilton, ANA Hotel, Marriott, Shangri-la, Conrad, Shinagawa Prince Hotel, Baycourt Resort, Intercontinental, and Pan Pacific.

Art Exhibitions:

Dec 2008-Jan2009 - Natural Journeys - solo exhibition, Shiba Park Hotel, Tokyo.

Dec 2018 - Bridging Worlds - group exhibition at Momo, Kichijoji

When she's not busy with music projects she's usually out painting