Profile

Maria is a warm-hearted and multi-talented actress from Russia.

Despite her elegant appearance, she is highly skilled in stage combat, Japanese traditional dance, and holds a brown belt in karate—a rare combination among foreign performers in Japan.

She has appeared in samurai period dramas, expanding into genres not often pursued by non-Japanese actors.

Maria is also trusted by her managers and production teams alike for her professionalism and reliability, even during long shooting days.

In addition to acting, she has experience as a Japanese–English interpreter at international trade events.
