Narrator

A bilingual Japanese–American actress, narrator, and multi-talented performer known for her expressive acting, clear and warm voice, and strong on-camera presence.
Born to an American father and Japanese mother, she brings an authentic bicultural perspective to her work, making her a natural fit for both Japanese and international productions.

Her career spans film, television, narration, music, radio, live stages, and event MCing.
She has earned multiple Best Actress awards at international film festivals, further establishing her reputation as a versatile and accomplished performer.
