

Aisha Tochigi

朽木 愛シャ

Nationality : Japan

Language : Japanese / English

Height: 176cm Bust: 88cm Waist: 68cm Hip: 93cm

Shoes: 26cm

Eyes: Dark Brown

Hair: Black

– Model / Influencer / Public Speaker / Activist

Profile

Born in 1996 in Tokyo, Japanese and Ghanaian heritage. She spent ages 10 to 17 in Ghana before returning to Japan. Naomi actively supports children and women's rights and acts as a bridge between Japan and Ghana. In 2020, she was crowned Miss Universe Japan, representing Japan on the global stage and using her platform to promote equality and social advocacy.

Career Highlights

Pageantry

2019: Competed in Miss Universe Japan 2019, Top 5 finalist

2020: Won Miss Universe Japan 2020

2021: Represented Japan at Miss Universe 2020 in Florida, USA

Advocacy & Public Speaking

Visited former Prime Minister Yoshihide Suga in 2020 to promote equality

TEDxYouth@GIISTokyo: "How Confidence Can Change Your Life"

Tokyo Olympics Welcome Ceremony Speech

Media & Interviews

The Washington Post: "Being Black in Japan: Biracial Japanese talk about discrimination and identity"

anan Magazine (Issue 2292): "Our Experiences of the World and Japan's SDGs"

Nahfconnect Interview: YouTube link

Television & Streaming

NHK Bi no Tsubo: "Japanese Brushes" Episode Link

Prime Video Bachelor Japan, Season 5

Advertising & Fashion

SONY Camera Lens

NTT Data

BOTTEGA MARTINESE

LaLa Glange

Judging & Events

Judge for 2021 Japan African Singing Contest ("歌うま")

Skills & Talents

Facial expressions & on-camera presence, able to perform under extreme conditions

Public speaking and advocacy

Hobbies

Picnics

Cooking

Gym & fitness