Professional Ballet Dancer & Model | Based in Japan | Originally from Russia

Beginning dance at the age of five and making her ballet debut at nine, she has built a career as a professional ballet dancer, touring internationally and performing in Japan twice as part of major ballet productions.

After relocating to Japan, she expanded her career into modeling, appearing in a wide range of commercials, fashion campaigns, and print projects.

Her classical foundation and refined presence make her a natural fit for both performance and visual media.
