

MeiM

メイム

Accordion & Cello / Piano & Cello Duo Unit

This acclaimed duo captivates audiences with its distinctive instrumentation, featuring either accordion and cello or piano and cello. Since its formation in 2015, the ensemble has created a truly unique sound through the exceptional musical chemistry and seamless collaboration between its members. Their performances have gained a devoted following, with concerts regularly selling out and waitlists becoming the norm.

Musical Style

The duo presents a crossover repertoire that spans tango, Latin music, classical works, film music, and original compositions, blending diverse influences into a compelling and innovative musical experience.

Members

- Misaki Kurokawa — Cello

A graduate of the Cello Department at Toho Gakuen School of Music, where she graduated at the top of her class, Misaki Kurokawa is an award-winning cellist with an impressive international career. Her achievements include winning First Prize at the 2015 Salzburg-Mozart International Chamber Music Competition, along with numerous other accolades. She has performed at a wide range of music festivals and concert series both in Japan and abroad.

- Megumi Tsuchiya — Accordion / Piano

After graduating from the Piano Department of Tokyo College of Music, Megumi Tsuchiya pursued further studies in Spain, where she earned a diploma. Driven by a passion for expanding the possibilities of musical expression, she mastered the button chromatic accordion and has built a distinguished career as both an accordionist and pianist. Her accomplishments include receiving the Grand Prize at the JAA International Accordion Ensemble Competition and performing internationally, including concert engagements in Taiwan.

Selected Achievements & Performance History

- * Has developed a diverse career, including performances at the Tokyo Spring Music Festival, film music performances, and composition projects.
- * 2023: Selected for the "Anata ga Next Artist" program and performed at the Hibiya Festival.

Discography

- * 2017: MeiM First (1st Album)
- * 2018: MeiM The LIVE (2nd Album, Amazon Records; currently out of print)
- * 2020: The Tango (3rd Album)
- * 2023: Peace of Mind (4th Album, Steelpan Records)

All releases have received critical acclaim and have contributed to the group's growing reputation within the Japanese contemporary and crossover music scene.