Musician / Mime / Performance Artist
Profile

Born in 1954 in Los Angeles, USA, this artist developed a passion for folk art from an early age. During high school, they studied under ethnologists and dance researchers, later pursuing music at Cabrillo College. After graduation, they worked at the Living History Center for 12 years, conducting research and live performances in ethnic stage arts, as well as teaching workshops and assisting in events.

Since 1992, they have conducted extensive research on folk performing arts across Europe and Asia, combining music, mime, and theatrical performance in both live events and educational settings.
