Languages: English (native), Japanese (fluent)

Hannah Grace is a versatile actress, singer, and narrator with a rich background in musical theater, television, voice acting, and corporate narration. From a young age, she trained in singing and acting through school choirs and local clubs, and made her professional musical debut at the age of 16. She later studied drama and vocal performance at university, honing her skills in both stage and screen performance.

Since relocating to Japan in 2011, Hannah has expanded her career into narration and voice work, lending her natural, smooth voice to commercials, TV programs, and educational content. She is equally adept at character voices, making her a sought-after talent for a wide range of projects, including NHK programs, corporate videos, and international campaigns.
