Actor / Model / TV & Radio Presenter / Bilingual MC

A self-described "British Japanese," born into a British family that has lived in Japan for three generations and raised in Saitama.
Although he spent several years of early childhood on the East Coast of the United States, his mindset and sensibility are th oroughly Japanese.

He began his modeling career while still in high school in 2014, and after gaining diverse professional experie nces — including working on a pineapple farm in Iriomote Island — he went on to study International Develop ment at a university in London from 2018 to 2020.
After returning to Japan, he relaunched his entertainment career through radio in Okinawa and is now active in Tokyo, wo rking as an MC, radio host, and TV personality.
